MANIFESTO IN CREATING THE CABINET UNSATISFACTORY

Warsaw, Nov. 2.—It now appears that thirty persons were killed and over 100 were injured during the conflict here last night. Instead of the expected abolition of martial law, today the governor had the walls covered with proclamations announcing that in consequence of yesterday's disturbance, any crowds assembling in the streets shall be dispersed by force of arms.

Restaurants were closed at noon and traffic stopped. Despite the governor's proclamation, immense patriotic crowds gathered in various parts of the city during the afternoon and paraded the streets, headed by Catholic priests carrying crosses and national flags. The processions converged toward the monument to the Polish poet, Mickiewicz, where patriotic speeches aroused enthusiasm.

The infantry fired on a crowd of demonstrators at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Two persons were killed and seven wounded. Many other fights took place in various parts of the city. Socialists are attacking patriotic processions.

The social democrats this afternoon issued a proclamation calling for revolution. Polish flags were displayed from many balconies and a mass meeting was held.

A deputation of prominent citizens visited the governor general to protest against yesterday's massacre in front of the city hall, beseeching him to withdraw the military in order to avoid bloodshed. The governor promised that the soldiers would not be allowed to use their weapons unless attacked.

The strike committee of the Vistula railroad has received a telegram from St. Petersburg saying: "First victory has been gained; hold out."

HUMANITY SHOCKED BY BLOODY CRIME RECORD.

Odesa, Nov. 2.—Anarchy is rampant here. Killing and plundering by bands of hundreds of loyalists continued this morning. The night was made hideous by bodies of loyalists, with whom the police are fraternizing, marching through the principal streets bearing national flags and portraits of the emperor, singing the national hymn and smashing everything in their way and looting shops and houses.

Hospital wagons passed through the streets incessantly, carrying off the killed, wounded and mutilated. The populace is panic stricken.

Later and More Horrible.

Odesa, Nov. 2.—Troops wreaked terrible vengeance on the residents of three houses from the balconies of which shots had been fired upon the troops by unknown persons. The soldiers stormed the houses, and with unheard of barbarity massacred all of the inhabitants. It is persistently asserted that the persons who fired on the troops were disgraced policemen who did this to purposely provoke the troops.

The city is a dismal sight. Streets

CHEAP RATES TO CALIFORNIA INVEIGLE MANY IMMIGRANTS.

The zenith of the summer's migration of tourists and immigrants to the Pacific coast through this city will be reached tonight when eight trains, carrying seventy-five heavily loaded cars will reach here. Four will be running as No. 1 and four will be running as train No. 7. The cheap rates closed on the 31st of October and the last of the excursionists to leave Chicago will reach here tonight. The rate from Chicago to Los Angeles was $33, the cheapest ever known, and the rate from Kansas City to Los Angeles was $25. There were one way rates, and judging from this fact, the majority of the excursionists are going to California expecting to remain permanently. There were five trains through the city going west last night.

Cashier Lee Clarke's Note to His Wife but Shortly Before Taking His Own Life, in Which He Charged

HIS RUIN TO ANDREWS AND THE SANTA FE CENTRAL

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 2.—United States District Attorney Dunkle stated today that Cashier Lee Clarke had left another written statement dealing the one addressed to his wife, dealing with Enterprise National Bank affairs. Attorney Dunkle said that the statement or confession was in the hands of Receiver Cunningham. It is not signed, but charges W. H. Andrews with Clarke's ruin.

"Has anything been done towards beginning criminal action against any one?" was asked. "Nothing yet," replied Dunkle. "We must be able to show that Clarke and others were in a conspiracy to wreck the bank or misappropriate its funds, before we can get action against them, and Cashier Clarke being dead, it is going to be something difficult to do. Besides, Special Examiner Moxey has not finished his investigation and will not be able to do so for several months."

FULLER PARTICULARS OF PITIFUL STORY

(Too late for last night's Citizen.) Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 1.—The following statement of T. Lee Clarke, cashier of the Enterprise National Bank of Allegheny, written a few hours before he committed suicide, was made public tonight. "Dearest Wife and Children: In ten hours or less I will be in another world. You have been a dear, good wife to me. Andrews has worked all my ruin. I have been a fool. How hard it is to leave you all. I have made a desperate effort to keep things going until I could get the road financed, but it has been too slow. The examiner is here and I am ruined. Do forgive me. I am not all my fault. I have been shamefully ruined. The bank will get everything but my life insurance. "Your husband, "LEE."

Clarke committed suicide on the morning of October 18, and the above statement, written in pencil on one of the bank's letterheads, was found in the dead man's home by his fourteen year old daughter and turned over to his attorney. It was evidently written at the bank before the suicide, when Bank Examiner Cunningham and Clarke worked until midnight on the books.

The bank was closed by the controller of the currency on the afternoon following Clarke's suicide, on advice from Examiner Cunningham. The above statement is not the one alleged to be in the possession of the federal authorities. That one, the friends of the dead cashier say, was given to the government authorities, but its existence has been vigorously denied.

T. Lee Clarke, the deceased cashier, was treasurer of the Santa Fe Central railroad, of which W. H. Andrews was president. This road is in New Mexico, and is about 117 miles long, running from Santa Fe to Torrance, with a branch now projected to Albuquerque. The road connects at Santa Fe with the Denver & Rio Grande, at Kennedy with the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, and at Torrance with the El Paso and Southwestern. The railway was capitalized at $2,500,000, and is bonded to the extent of $2,500,000. Of this amount $2,000,000 bonds have been issued, while $500,000 have been kept in the treasury for betterments. A dispatch from Franklin, Pa., tonight, says: "The alertness of Receiver John B. Cunningham, of the Enterprise National Bank of Allegheny, has resulted in securing for the creditors of that institution something like $17,500, which was seized on a foreign attachment against W. H. Andrews. Just before the close of business at the court house yesterday, J. H. Osmer & Sons, attorneys, received a telegram from Receiver Cunningham instructing them to attach all the real and personal property of W. H. Andrews in Venango county. The writ was issued, and a writ to be served by Sheriff McElhinney today. "It directed particularly that all money and credits in the hands of the National Transit company, through which the Standard Oil company purchases its crude oil, be attached. It is understood that the receiver took this step on learning that Andrews contemplated the sale of his oil property in Cherry Tree township, this county. That the sale had been planned is indicated by Andrews and his attorney, Eugene Mackey, arriving here at 2 o'clock this morning. They went to the Alsace hotel, did not register, and instructed the clerk not to let any one know that they were there. When the court house opened this morning Andrews and his attorney learned that the attachment had been issued. However, they met Dr. Burchfield, the prospective purchaser, and after securing Receiver Cunningham's consent, the sale was consummated and the proceeds turned over to the receiver. A dispatch from Meadville, Pa., says that valuable real estate in Steubenville, Rome and Oil Creek townships, belonging to Andrews, has been attached.

LIVELY SCENES ON THE BAY

Entertainments are Enjoyed on Land and Visits Made Between Ships.

TRIP TO WASHINGTON TOMORROW

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 2.—The American and British officers are quickly becoming acquainted and all the forenoon there were informal exchanges of visits between the officers of the two navies.

Early in the day there started from the bay a long column of white and red, which was a British and American officers for a day in Annapolis.

This afternoon at 2:30 Prince Louis and Admiral Sands will review a brigade of midshipmen. After dress parade, will occur the reception by Admiral Sands to Prince Louis, his staff and the commanding officers of the squadron. The prince, accompanied by his staff and commanding officers, will leave on a special train tomorrow for Washington, where they will be presented to the president by Sir Mortimer Durand, British ambassador.

AFFAIRS ARE GIVEN MORE LARGELY IN DETAIL.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 2.—Now that the official ceremonies of the reception of the British visitors are over, the most cordial relations have been established between the officers and men of the British and American squadrons, and they are fraternizing all along the line. Steam launches and gigs are constantly crossing and re-crossing from one ship to another, carrying officers making calls. Many of the officers went on shore and spent the day with the officers of the American squadron, visiting the Naval Academy and other points of interest in and around the city. The sailors of Rear Admiral Evans' squadron, who carried $10,000 from their wages to use that fund for the entertainment of the British sailors, are quite proud of being able to play hosts and are doing the honors handsomely. The American boys have not forgotten the hospitality with which they were received and are returning the compliment by giving the British sailors a visit to Portsmouth, England. Comparatively little can be done here for the amusement of the visiting sailors, but they will have a great time when they reach New York on the 9th.

BOER COLONY IN MEXICO GIVES UP.

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 2.—The Boer colony, established in Chihuahua, Mexico, by General W. D. Symman, is completely disbanded. A letter to the Herald from B. J. Viljoen, late Boer army general, declares that every soul has left except Symman and family. He says the settlers could get no clear titles to land, and Mexico demanded that they become Mexican citizens. Other difficulties were also met, and the colonists departed, leaving behind them all improvements. Some Boers are now working in El Paso as laborers and others in the mines of Mexico.

TORPEDO FACTORY HAS ORDERS FOR MILLIONS.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 2.—The E. W. Bliss company, of this city, is making preparations for enlarging its plant so as to be able to fill the contract just placed with the company by the United States government for $2,000,000 worth of dirigible electric torpedoes of the kind which the company patented several years ago. The Navy Department has been experimenting with these torpedoes for the past two years, and after exhaustive tests, established, beyond question, their efficiency. It is understood that the Russian government is also trying to place a contract with the company. Russia wants $5,000,000 worth of the same dirigible torpedoes. Whether the company will take the contract depends in part on the attitude of the United States government and in part on the ability of Russia to guarantee the payment.

WILL ASK FOR NAVY INCREASE

Mt. Vernon, Ohio, Nov. 2.—Buried beneath a culvert, 200 feet from the spot where Stuart Pierson, a Kenyon college student was ground to death by a train on Sunday, the authorities have found three lengths of blood-stained rope and a wad of absorbent cotton, also saturated with blood. County Prosecutor Stillwell expresses the firm belief that the boy was cholofomed and then tied on the railroad track as part of an initiation into a college fraternity. Stillwell says that he has several persons under surveillance.

NINETEEN MORE VESSELS ASKED FOR THE NAVY.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 2.—A formidable, yet necessary, increase in the navy has been recommended by the general naval board, of which Admiral Dewey is president. It recommends that the president ask congress to authorize during the coming session of congress: Three battleships of such displacement as will enable them to carry at least ten 12-inch breech loading guns; six torpedo boats; six torpedo boat destroyers; four sub-marine torpedo boats. In order to carry the guns proposed, the battleships must have a displacement of at least 18,000 tons.

SECRETARY SHAW WILL RUN THREE BIG HOUSES

Washington, D. C., Nov. 2.—An intimate friend of Secretary Leslie M. Shaw, who is well acquainted with the secretary's plans for the future, confirms the report that when Mr. Shaw leaves the cabinet next spring, he will become the head of three large financial institutions in his home state, Iowa. Mr. Shaw now controls the Bank of Denison, and intends to wind up the affairs of that institution. In its place he will establish a national bank, a savings bank and a loan and trust company. Secretary Shaw will be the president of all three institutions, and he expects, through his acquaintance with financiers, to make them the largest of their kind in the west. It is stated that Secretary Shaw received highly advantageous offers from several large western banks, but declined to accept them.

DESERTED WIFE DESIRES LOCATION OF A. C. CHENEY

SHE CLAIMS THAT HE CAME TO ALBUQUERQUE WITH ANOTHER WOMAN, AND IS RAILROADING.

Albuquerque seems to be the mecca for wife deserters; at least many deserted spouses seem to think that it is.

The police department has been kept busy for the past several months answering letters from women who seem to think that possibly their husbands may have taken refuge here. So many of these letters have been answered by the department that the Chief of Police McMulla is thinking of asking the city council to give him a secretary to do his writing.

But the police department is not the only place where these husbands tracing letters have been received. The newspapers have received a share of them and now come to H. S. Lutz, local agent for the Santa Fe. Mr. Lutz has one received last night, dated Oakland, Cal., Oct. 30, which says: "H. S. Lutz, Dear Sir: Would you please let me know whether there is a A. C. Cheney in your employ, either as freight or passenger brakeman, or in any capacity. He has deserted his wife and child here and has taken another woman down there with him. "I implore you to let me know as soon as possible, for I am his wife. "MRS. A. C. CHENEY."

SPANISH KING EXPECTS TO GET AWAY TOMORROW.

Madrid, Nov. 2.—Everything is in readiness for the departure of the king on his voyage to Germany. Premier General Montero Rios will accompany the king on his trip, as it is believed, to act as his counselor during the trip, which may have considerable political importance. The general impression is that the object of the king's voyage is in the first place, connected with his matrimonial plans, and that the king will, at the same time, endeavor to strengthen the position of Spain by winning the friendship and support of Germany. The king will start tomorrow and will be the guest of Emperor William from November 6th to November 12th.
